

A Report on “ Anti-Ragging Day” Organized on 12.08.2024 and submitted by Dr. K. Chandramohan, Associate Professor & Coordinator - Anti-Ragging Squad, MITS

Madanapalle Institute of Technology & Science, Annamayya District, Madanapalle, Celebrated Anti-Ragging Day at MITS Auditorium at 4 ‘o’ clock. For this event, all the prominent dignitaries of the college Dr. C. Yuvaraju, Principal, MITS as the chief guest of the day, Dr. Thulasiram Naidu, Advisor - R&D as the special guest of the day, Dr. K. Chandramohan, Coordinator - Anti-Ragging Squad, and Dr. G. Hemalatha, The Additional Coordinator of Anti-Ragging Squad initiated to grace the occasion and addressed the gathering as executives of the event.

Dr. C. Yuvaraju, said in his speech that since the establishment of the college, not even a single case of ragging has been witnessed and registered so far, and the college management and officials are continuously making great efforts to prevent such incidents from ragging by their keen monitoring both inside and outside the campus. He also stated that the college is taking possible measures and will not hesitate to take any strict actions to ban ragging completely and also to keep away the menace of ragging. Dr. Tulsi Ram Naidu said that all kinds of primitive measures to drive away the ragging demon in the college, we are regularly conducting awareness programs, in that police, legal experts and judges will be the guest of honours, so everyone will get the alert of ragging and be careful in the matter of ragging.

He also stated that Students should think about their goals seriously and equip all their necessary technical skills, good communication skills, respective domain knowledge etc., from time to time before they reach final year, so that students can get a good job in campus placements at the beginning of the final year itself. Therefore, he stated that every student should be goal oriented and eradicate ragging completely from their mind and reality.

Dr. Thulasiram Naidu said that all kinds of primitive measures are followed to drive away the ragging demon in the college, we are regularly conducting awareness programs, in that, police, legal experts and judges will be the guest of honours, so everyone will get the alert of ragging along with its act.

Dr. Chandramohan said that anti-ragging week celebration began from 12th August 2024, in MITS as per the instructions of UGC and AICTE, and as a part of Anti-Ragging Day. He informed that these celebrations would create awareness among the students about ragging, which helps to eliminate the fear of ragging and enable students to walk confidently in the college.

Dr. G. Hemalatha informed students that different types of competitions will be conducted in the college related to Anti-Ragging Week in which students are expected to participate and get the alert and be aware about ragging along with its punishable law.

