Report on ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR B.TECH STUDENTS organised by Internal Complaint Committee of MITS on 13.9.23.

For B.Tech students three weeks induction program was conducted and one slot is allotted in auditorium for ICC.

Dr.K.V.Geetha Devi, Chair person of ICC has explained about ICC as it was set up to deal with complaints of sexual harassment of women in the workplace and also to focus on creating awareness, counselling and educating about gender issues.

Internal Complaints Committee(ICC) is a mandatory committee that every organization is required to constitute. An Internal Committee is a body that is constituted within an organization to address and resolve complaints of sexual harassment in the workplace.

Dr. Geetha Devi had explained the definition of sexual harassment and various types of conducts or acts, both implicit or explicit which fall under the sexual harassment at workplace.

she had elaborately discussed on the UGC Regulation Act, 2015 focusing on the primary duties that the ICC is required to perform in a higher educational Institution as per the Act and the guidelines given by the Act with regard to the formation an ICC.

The ICC is responsible for receiving, and inquiring about it. She has explained how students can approach the ICC cell and register the complaint as well as resolving complaints of sexual harassment made by employees and students of the college.

She also highlighted about MITS-policy, “As the college has a zero-tolerance policy towards any such transgression. The college is committed to providing a safe and conducive work and academic environment to students and its employees and is extremely alert to matters pertaining to any kind of harassment and gender sensitivity”.

She shared about the number of activities are organized throughout the year by the cell, in order to create awareness about Sexual Harassment, apart from an orientation programme which is conducted with students, to acquaint them about the guidelines in the Jurisdiction. The committee conducted many activities including Poster Making Competition, celebration of Women day and arranging guest lectures and many other such activities to highlight the menace of Sexual Harassment.

NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY ON 24 JANUARY, 2024

Report submitted by Dr. K. V. Geetha Devi, ICC Chairperson & Asst.Prof and HoD, Department of Management studies

The program commenced at 4:00pm in seminar hall B with 155 girls. Emcee K. Rishnika Sastry started the function with a warm welcome to the guests and students. She briefed about the national girl child day and invited Sathwika from MBA C section for a song.

Later, she invited HOD of MBA Dr. K.V Geetha Devi Gaaru, ICC Chairperson , Mrs. U. Vijaya lakshmi madam, International Relations Coordinator and Student's counsellor, Dr. Kalpana madam, Head of CSE department and Dr. Ganga Devi madam, Head of CSE- Cyber Security Department on to the dais

A student from MBA named Shanthi Priya gave a speech about the event explaining how a girl was treated in the earlier days, how she was treated and what changes are being seen in today's world.

Dr. Geetha Devi madam delivered few words about how a girl is to be treated and the effort students need to make in order to take the lime light. She highlighted that national girl child day was started in 2008 and is celebrated on January 24 every year at the auspices of the ministry of women and child development. She also highlighted the role played by ICC at MITS and its objectives. She exhorted the girl students to approach the committee for any help whenever they are uncomfortable.

Then Dr. Kalpana madam highlighted about how a girl needs to be courageous enough to grab the opportunities and what are the sources for her. She has clearly explained the importance of the day and its need to celebrate.

U. Vijaya lakshmi madam in her speech shared her experiences about being one of the five daughters and her hardships to make it till now. She also explained about how a girl is to be treated. She explained the importance of financial independence and how beautiful it would be if a girl is financially independent.

Dr.Ganga Devi madam shared her life experiences about travelling from a faraway distance to reach school and how she reached these heights with an experience of 17 years.

After the speech emcee called upon a student named Naseefa from MBA B section. She announced of planning to celebrate Wear Red day on February 2nd which commemorates about awareness of women heart diseases. Mrs. Vijayalakshmi madam promised to conduct a program on that day and invite lady heart surgeon so as to spread more awareness. Then emcee requested any one to volunteer to explain about girl child day. The audience were very enthusiastic and involved very much in the program

The function ended with vote of thanks. The program was, with no doubt, a huge success.

Internal Complaint Committee of MITS extends its gratitude to the Management, Principal, Vice-Principals, Deans, Heads of all departments, teaching and non-teaching staff.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY
ORGANISED BY
INTERNAL COMPLAINT COMMITTEE (ICC)
07.03.2024

Report submitted by Dr. K. V. Geetha Devi, ICC Chairperson & Asst. Prof and HoD, Department of Management studies.

Women's day celebrations at Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science were held on 7th March, 2024 in Auditorium with nearly 500 girl students and 30 lady faculty. Every year United Nations decides a theme and colour for the women's day. This year the theme is

INVEST IN WOMEN, ACCELERATE PROGRESS.

The color of this year is PURPLE. The program started at 3:00 PM with an invocation by MBA C section student Sandhya. Later the emcee started the event with a small speech. The ICC chairperson & MBA HOD Dr. Geetha Devi along with international relations officer- Mrs. Vijayalakshmi and CSE HOD & Women empowerment cell Coordinator- Dr. R Kalpana were invited on to the dais.

On this occasion, Dr. Geetha Devi told that it is for the first time to celebrate women's day in a big venue like auditorium and thanked all the HODs who took initiative and encouraged the students to participate. She also emphasized that empowering women is very crucial for the development of a family as well as for the country as women contribute a lot in raising happier and healthier children who are essential for the ideal society.

Then International relations officer Mrs. Vijayalakshmi shared a few words about the importance of a girl in the society. She also highlighted that all the girl students should stay strong in every situation so as to keep the family strong and intact. If the lady of the family is weak minded, then the whole family will be weak too. She quoted that " Behind the success of every man there will be a women".

Later Dr. R. Kalpana stated that women don't need any separate day to celebrate. Every day is a special day for her. She also emphasized that Women is equal to men in all the aspects infact she is more than equal to men. She told that irrespective of the departments, everybody should stay together for the wellbeing of women fraternity. She promised that next year women's day would be celebrated for the whole day so that everyone can enjoy to the fullest.

In view of Women's Day, on 5th March 2024, throw ball and tug-of-war games were conducted for girl students and women faculty. In throw ball, P. Navya and the team stood as winners and Indu and team as runners. In tug of war, the winners are Likitha and team and the runners are Amrutha and team. Prizes were given to both the winners and runners. Under faculty category Mrs. Annapurna stood as a winner in musical chairs. Winners in tug off war were Dr. Kalpana, Dr. Nitya, Dr. Hemalatha, Mrs. Deepa, Mrs. Annapurna, Mrs. Prabhavathi, Mrs. Lakshmi and Mrs. Rajini.

Pramodini from MBA B section delivered a speech on the importance of women empowerment. The cultural programs were started after the prize distribution. The program was ended at 5:00 pm with the vote of thanks by Emcee K. Rishnika Sastry. The students and the faculty enjoyed till to the very last moment. The events like these fill the energy in the students and refresh them. The event was undoubtedly a grand success. Internal Complaint Committee of MITS extends its gratitude to the Management, Principal, Vice-Principals, Deans, Heads of all departments, teaching and non-teaching staff.

If women are given priority and adequate freedom in society, then every day is a women's day

(By Our Skyline Staff Reporter)
Madanapalle, March 08: International Women's Day was celebrated at Madanapalle Institute of Technology & Science, Madanapalle. Dr Geetha Devi, IIC coordinator of the college, said in this program that the source of creation is woman, and if a woman sets her mind to anything, she can achieve anything. The United Nations has declared that it is committed to taking steps to ensure that all women live in peace around the world. Today, women are competing and succeeding in all fields, she said.

Even if there is discrimination, harassment, achievements, lack of opportunities or insults, women should face them bravely and move forward. She said that women's equality and empowerment is the source of society's progress. Dr Kalpana, head of the computer science department said in this program that the services rendered by women inside and outside the home are priceless and if women are given respect, equality and priority in the society and appropriate freedoms are provided, then every day will be a women's day. On this occasion, gifts were given to the women in the programs organized.
