Event Highlights :

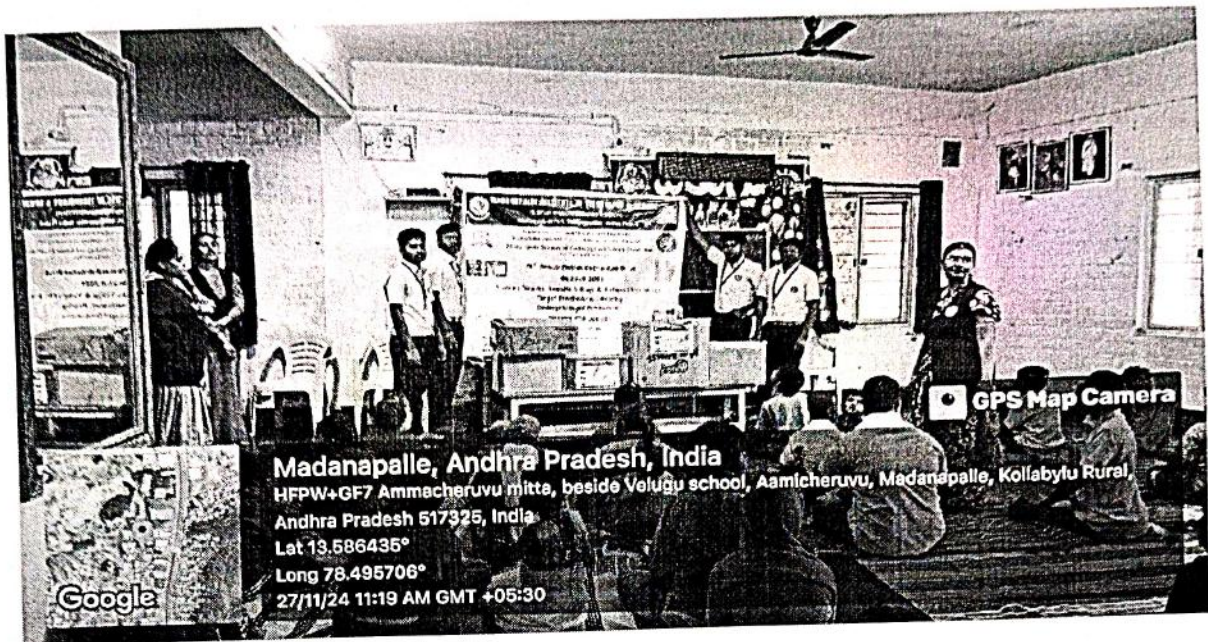

On November 27, 2024, the NSS unit of MITS, in collaboration with the Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering, organized a Clothes Donation Drive at Velugu Orphanage near Madanapalle. The event began at 10:00 AM at the college and concluded by 1:00 PM at the orphanage. A total of 31 NSS volunteers, along with 3 students from the Electrical & Electronics Engineering Department, participated in the initiative. The camp benefitted 194 children residing at the orphanage, as clothing items were distributed to meet their needs. This thoughtful effort brought smiles to the children's faces and highlighted the spirit of compassion and community service among the participants, making the event a memorable success.

Guests and Dignitaries :

The Clothes Donation Drive was honored by the presence of an esteemed guest, whose support and encouragement greatly enriched the initiative. The guest shared valuable insights on the importance of community welfare and the role of such initiatives in spreading kindness and addressing societal needs. Their presence added inspiration and motivation to the event, making it even more impactful and memorable.

1. Dr. A.V. Pavan Kumar, HOD - EEE,

His insightful words emphasized the importance of helping those in need and the impact of collective efforts in improving lives. His encouragement inspired the participants to continue contributing to such meaningful initiatives, fostering a sense of responsibility and compassion toward the community.

Event Process:

The Clothes Donation Drive organized by the NSS unit of MITS, in collaboration with the Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering, took place on November 27, 2024. The event was inaugurated at 10:00 AM at the college by our esteemed guests, Dr. A.V. Pavan Kumar, Dr. K. Arul Kumar – Associative Proffeser and Mr. Pujari Rajesh, NSS Program Officer. By 10:30 AM, we reached Velugu Orphanage near Madanapalle, where we were warmly welcomed by the management. After a brief interaction with the staff, we engaged in conversations with the residents of the orphanage, learning about their lives and needs. At 11:30 AM, we began an interactive session with the children, filled with joy and laughter, creating lasting memories for both the volunteers and the children. At 12:30 PM, we distributed the collected clothes to the 194 children in the orphanage and provided snacks to bring smiles to their faces. The camp concluded successfully, and we returned to the college by 1:00 PM. This initiative reflected our commitment to social welfare and left a positive impact on everyone.

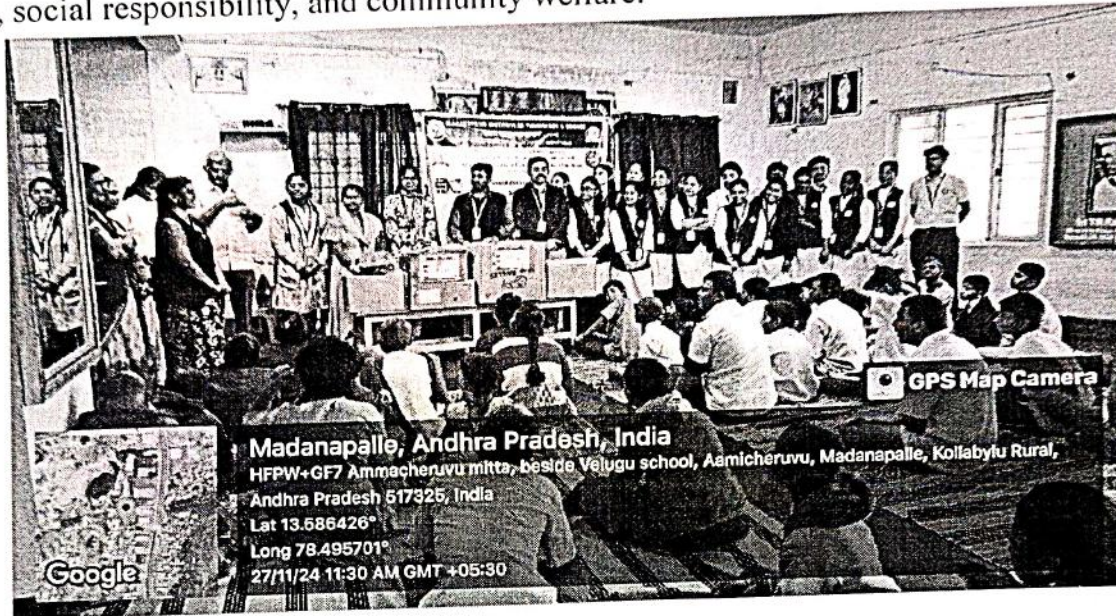

Their presence and guidance ensured that the Clothes Donation Drive was a resounding success, with every aspect of the event organized efficiently and with great We the generous support of our esteemed faculty members, students, and volunteers, whose dedication and teamwork played a crucial role in planning and executing the drive. The success of this initiative highlights the power of collaboration and community spirit. It serves as a reminder that acts of kindness and support can create a lasting positive impact on society. By addressing the needs of the children at Velugu Orphanage, this drive demonstrated the importance of compassion and social responsibility. We hope this initiative inspires others to contribute to similar efforts, fostering a culture of care and empathy within our institution and beyond.

Acknowledgments

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to the NSS volunteers for their active participation in organizing and assisting throughout the Clothes Donation Drive at Velugu Orphanage. Their dedication and enthusiasm were key to the smooth execution of the event. Our sincere thanks also go to the esteemed faculty members for their valuable presence and support.
