A Report on “GANDHI JAYANTHI” Organized by NSS CELL On 02-10-2024

Report Submitted by: Mr.Pujari Rajesh, Assistant professor, Department Mechanical.

Attendance: 114 participants (Students&Faculty)

Introduction :

On October 2, 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of MITS organized a Gandhi Jayanti celebration as part of its community outreach initiatives. The primary objective of this noble endeavor was to honor the life and contributions of Mahatma Gandhi, fostering a sense of social responsibility among students and faculty members. The event was conducted from 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM at the East Block and witnessed an impressive turnout of participants, contributing to the success of the celebration.

Event Highlights :

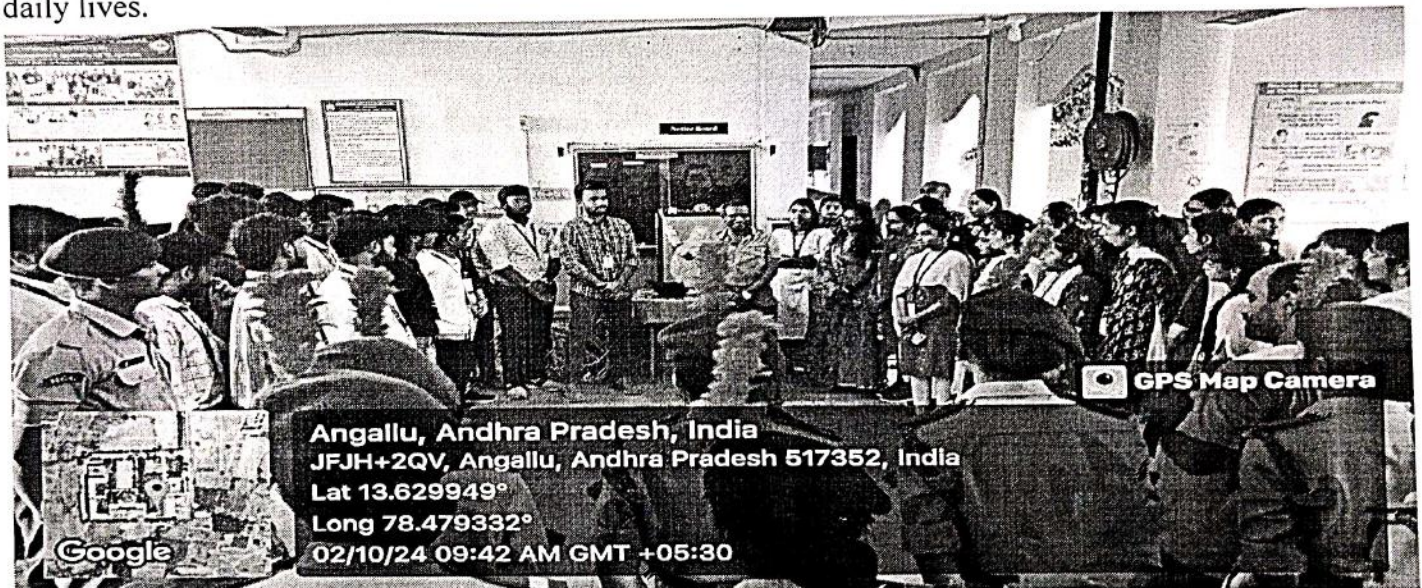

On Gandhi Jayanti, the NSS unit of MITS organized a solemn tribute to Mahatma Gandhi by offering a garland to his portrait. The event was graced by speeches from the respected faculty members, who shared their thoughts on Gandhiji's principles. Additionally, NCC cadets and NSS volunteers delivered inspiring speeches, reflecting on his contributions to the nation. The gathering was marked by a sense of reverence and respect for the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi. The event concluded with a renewed commitment to uphold his values of peace and non-violence.

Guests and Dignitaries :

The event was graced by the presence of two esteemed guests, whose support and encouragement added value to the celebration. The following guests attended and shared their thoughts on the significance of Gandhi Jayanti and the enduring relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's principles:

1. Dr. Prudhi Rajan, Assistant Professor, Department Of Mechanical
2. Dr. Pradeep Kumar, Professor, Department Of MBA

Their words of inspiration motivated the attendees to reflect on the values of Mahatma Gandhi, encouraging them to embody his principles of peace, non-violence, and social responsibility in their daily lives.

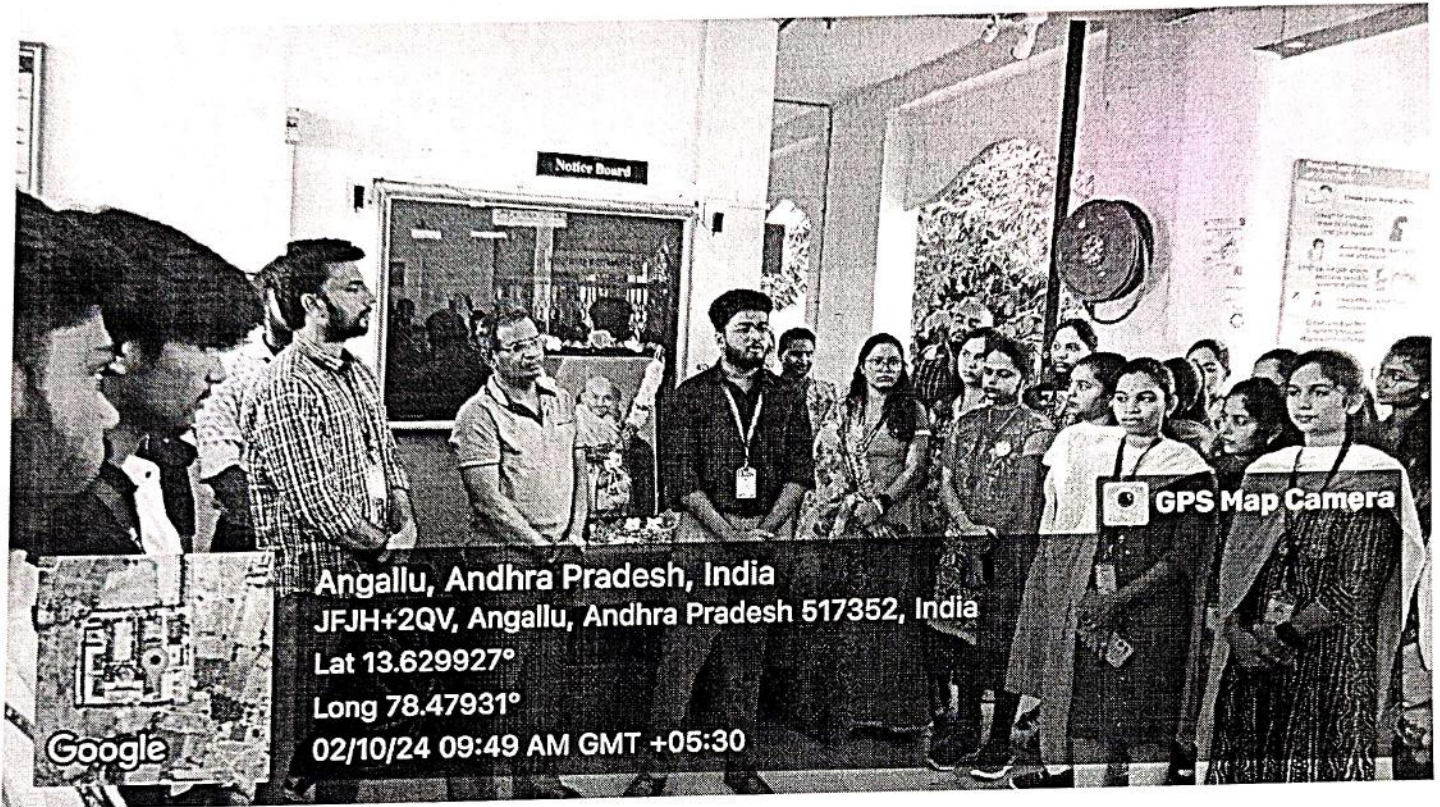

Event Process :

The Gandhi Jayanti celebration organized by the NSS unit of MITS took place on October 2, 2024, from 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM. The one-hour event began with a solemn tribute to Mahatma Gandhi, as a garland was offered to his portrait in honour of his enduring legacy. The event was graced by the presence of two esteemed faculty members who shared their insightful thoughts on the importance of Gandhiji's principles in contemporary society.

Dr. Pruthvi Rajan, Assistant Professor in the Department of Mechanical Engineering, delivered a speech emphasizing the relevance of Gandhian ideals in today's world. Dr. Pradeep Kumar, Professor in the Department of MBA, also addressed the gathering, highlighting the significance of non-violence, peace, and social responsibility as key pillars of Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy.

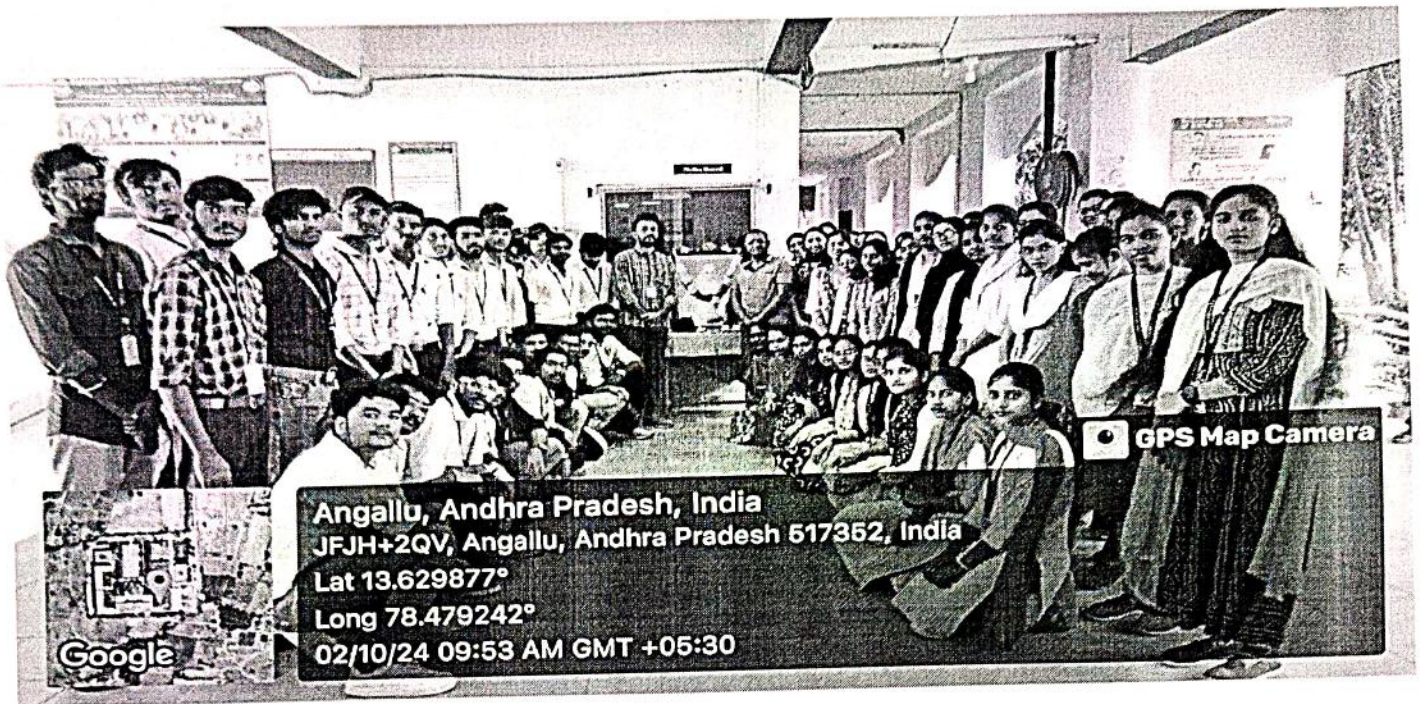

In addition to the esteemed faculty, the NSS volunteers and NCC cadets contributed by delivering their own speeches, reflecting on Gandhiji's contributions to the nation and the values that continue to inspire generations. Their words resonated deeply with the attendees, fostering a spirit of unity and social consciousness.

Their presence and professionalism ensured that the Gandhi Jayanti event ran smoothly, with every aspect of the ceremony conducted with utmost respect and reverence. We also appreciate the generous support of our faculty members, students, and volunteers, who played a pivotal role in organizing and executing the event. The success of this celebration reflects the power of collaboration and community spirit. It serves as a reminder that honouring the values of Mahatma Gandhi, such as non-violence, peace, and social responsibility, can have a profound impact on our community. We hope that this initiative inspires others to embody Gandhiji's ideals and continues to foster a culture of unity and giving in our institution.

Acknowledgments :

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to all those who contributed to the success of the Gandhi Jayanti celebration. Our sincere thanks go to the esteemed faculty members for their valuable presence and inspiring speeches, as well as to the NSS volunteers and NCC cadets for their active participation. We also appreciate the support of all the students who attended and helped make the event meaningful. Their collective efforts and dedication to honouring the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact on our community, reinforcing the importance of peace, non-violence, and social responsibility.

Special Thanks to participants :

On behalf of the NSS, we extend our special thanks to the NCC cadets for their dedicated participation and professionalism, which played a vital role in the success of the Gandhi Jayanti celebration. We also express our heartfelt gratitude to the esteemed faculty members for their valuable presence and inspiring speeches, which added depth and meaning to the event. Their unwavering support and contributions were essential in honoring the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi. We are truly grateful for their commitment and the lasting impact they've created in our community. Thank you for being a part of this meaningful occasion..

Gratitude Message for Faculty:

we thank you for your generous involvement, which helped make this event meaningful and impactful. Your contributions serve as a reminder of the power of unity and the importance of upholding Gandhiji's values of peace, non-violence, and social responsibility. We deeply appreciate your commitment to these ideals.

Closing:

The success of this Gandhi Jayanti celebration wouldn't have been possible without the support of all involved. We look forward to hosting more such initiatives that honor Mahatma Gandhi's values and continue to make a positive impact on society. Together, we can keep spreading the ideals of peace, non-violence, and social responsibility.
