A Report on “NSS DAY” Organized by NSS CELL On 24-09-2024

Report Submitted by: Mr.Pujari Rajesh, Assistant professor, Department Mechanical.

Attendance: 150 participants (Students&Faculty)

Introduction :

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Day was celebrated on September 24 at Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science, with great enthusiasm and a spirit of service. The event took place in Seminar Hall A, where the students and NSS volunteers from the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th years gathered to commemorate the significant day. The celebration was centered around the theme and inspiring quote, "Not Me, But You", reflecting the core philosophy of NSS, which is to serve the community selflessly and contribute to society's betterment.

On this special day, the volunteers reflected on their contributions and the impact they have made in various social welfare activities. The NSS Day celebration served as a reminder of the selfless service model and encouraged everyone to continue their efforts towards building a better, more compassionate society. The event was an opportunity to strengthen the bond between the students and the community, reaffirming the NSS values of leadership, social responsibility, and integrity.

Event Highlights :

The Programme Officer emphasized the importance of the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," and encouraged the volunteers to continue contributing to society through various community service initiatives. Following the speech, a unique activity was conducted by the senior NSS volunteers to engage the junior volunteers. The senior volunteers organized an exam to test the enthusiasm and dedication of the junior volunteers towards the NSS cause. The exam focused on assessing their knowledge about the core values of NSS, its past activities, and their personal commitment to service. It was an interactive session that allowed the junior volunteers to reflect on their journey with NSS and understand the depth of their responsibilities.

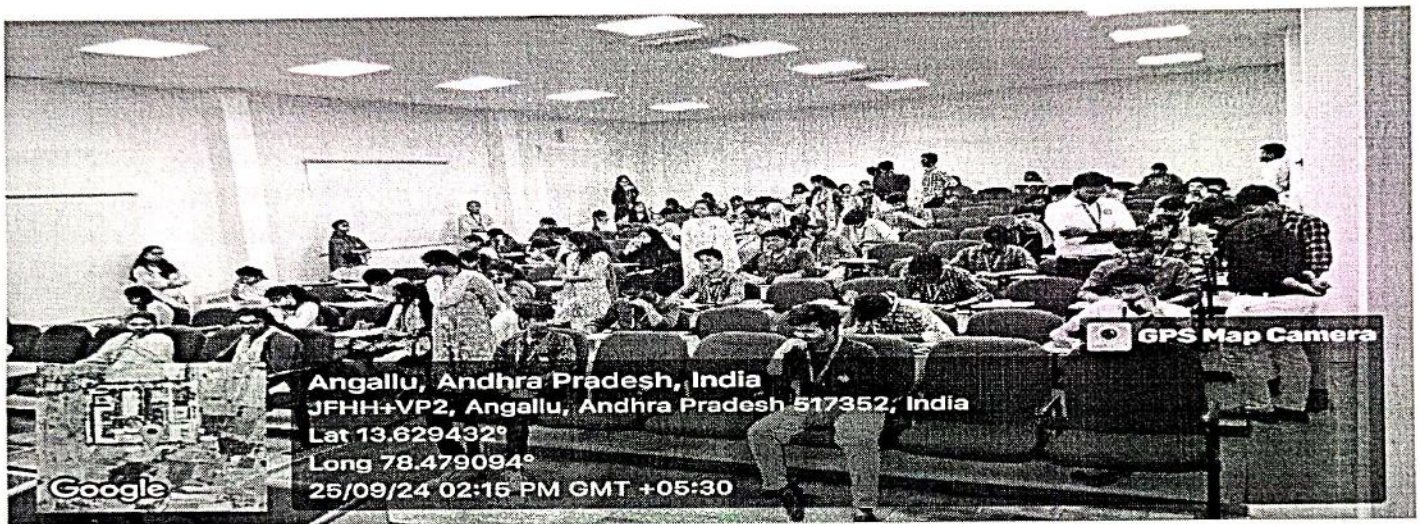

The exam not only served as a learning experience but also inspired the junior volunteers to take their roles more seriously and contribute actively to future NSS initiatives. This engaging activity fostered healthy competition and encouraged a spirit of camaraderie among the volunteers. The entire event was a reminder of the power of collective effort and how each individual can make a significant difference in society.

Event Process :

The NSS Day celebration at Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science was an engaging and enlightening event, highlighting the essence of selfless service. The event began promptly in Seminar Hall A, where the NSS Programme Officer delivered an inspiring speech. In his address, he emphasized the importance of the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," and spoke about the role of the National Service Scheme in shaping socially responsible individuals. He encouraged all the volunteers to stay committed to their service and continue contributing to the welfare of the community. The Programme Officer also highlighted the significant impact that NSS activities have had over the years in promoting social change, environmental awareness, and community development.

Following the speech, the event moved to a unique activity designed by the senior NSS volunteers. They conducted an exam for the junior volunteers, aimed at testing their passion and understanding of the NSS mission. The exam was structured to evaluate their knowledge of NSS principles, past initiatives, and their personal dedication to serving society. This interactive activity allowed the junior volunteers to reflect on their roles and deepen their understanding of the NSS values.

After the exam, a vibrant senior-junior interaction session took place, where the senior volunteers shared their experiences and insights with the juniors. This interaction created an opportunity for mentorship and fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie among the volunteers. The juniors, in turn, expressed their eagerness to participate in upcoming NSS activities and contribute more meaningfully to the community.

The event concluded on a sweet note with the distribution of sweets to all volunteers, both senior and junior. This gesture symbolized the spirit of unity and gratitude for the hard work and dedication of the volunteers. The sweets served as a small token of appreciation for their selfless contributions to the NSS cause. The NSS Day celebration was a truly memorable occasion, motivating everyone to continue their journey of service and making a positive difference in society.

Acknowledgments :

We sincerely acknowledge the support and participation of all NSS volunteers, both senior and junior, who made the NSS Day celebration a success. Special thanks to the NSS Programme Officer for his inspiring speech and guidance throughout the event. We also extend our gratitude to the senior volunteers for organizing the interactive exam and mentoring the junior volunteers. Their efforts fostered a spirit of unity and passion for community service. Finally, we thank everyone involved in making the celebration memorable and impactful.

Special Thanks to Guests :

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the senior NSS volunteers for their unwavering support and dedication in guiding the incoming volunteers. Your mentorship and encouragement have played a vital role in helping the new volunteers understand the essence of the NSS mission. Through your active engagement, you have inspired them to embrace the values of selfless service and community involvement. Your leadership in conducting the interactive sessions and the exam demonstrated your commitment to shaping the future of NSS. We deeply appreciate your efforts in fostering a spirit of camaraderie and ensuring the continued growth of the NSS family.

Conclusion :

The NSS Day celebration at Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science was a resounding success, reinforcing the core values of selfless service and community responsibility. The event, centered around the motto "Not Me, But You," inspired all attendees to reflect on their roles as responsible citizens and active volunteers. Through the engaging speech by the NSS Program Officer, the interactive exam, and the senior-junior interactions, the volunteers deepened their understanding of NSS's purpose and their commitment to serving society. The celebration concluded with a spirit of unity and gratitude, as volunteers left motivated to continue making a positive impact on the community.
