

A Report on "Anti-Ragging Day Rally"
Organized by MITS Social Responsibility Club – MSR AY 2026-27
on 12.08.2026

Report Submitted by: Mr. B.S.H. Shayeez Ahamed, Assistant Professor, Dept. of CSE (AI and ML)/ MSR Club Coordinator / Co-Coordinator-SAC.

Report Received on 25.08.2026.

Mode of Conduct: Offline

The MITS Social Responsibility Club (MSR) organized an Anti-Ragging Rally on 12th August 2026 as part of its commitment to promoting a safe, respectful, and supportive campus environment. The programme aimed to create awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and educate students on the importance of maintaining discipline, dignity, and mutual respect within the college community. The rally encouraged students to stand united against ragging and emphasized their collective responsibility in creating and maintaining a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus.

Welcome Address:

The program began with a welcome address highlighting the serious issue of ragging and its negative impact on students and the overall college environment. The importance of creating awareness about the consequences of ragging and the need for collective efforts to prevent such incidents were emphasized. The role of students in promoting a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus was also highlighted, encouraging everyone to actively support the vision of a ragging-free college.

Chief Guest Address:

The event was graced by the Chief Guest, Mr. Ravi Naik, CI, Circle Inspector of Police, Annamayya District. His presence added great value and motivation to the Anti-Ragging Rally. In his address, the Chief Guest highlighted the serious physical, psychological, and social consequences of ragging and emphasized the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful campus environment. He urged students to refrain from ragging, respect their fellow students, and make responsible choices. His inspiring speech encouraged participants to actively spread awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and to support the vision of a ragging-free campus. The Anti-Ragging Rally was formally flagged off by the Chief Guest in the presence of college authorities, faculty members, and MSR Club members.

Objectives of the Program:

The objectives of the MSR Anti-Ragging Rally were:

1. To create awareness among students about the harmful effects and consequences of ragging
2. To educate students about the physical, psychological, and social impact of ragging.
3. To promote a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment within the college campus.
4. To encourage students to stand against ragging and report any incidents responsibly.
5. To strengthen student participation and community engagement through MSR activities.
6. To promote discipline, mutual respect, and social responsibility.
7. To support the vision of creating a ragging-free campus.

Program Activities:

The Anti-Ragging Rally commenced from the Saraswati Block and proceeded through the Open Auditorium to the Lakshmi Block, covering key locations across the college campus. MSR student volunteers actively participated in the rally by carrying placards and banners displaying anti-ragging messages, raising awareness through impactful slogans that promoted a safe and ragging-free campus, and encouraging students to understand the harmful effects and legal consequences of ragging. The volunteers also spread the message of mutual respect, discipline, and responsible student behaviour, fostering a culture of inclusivity and empathy among students.

The rally successfully drew the attention of students, faculty members, and staff, effectively conveying a strong message against ragging. It reinforced the collective responsibility of every member of the institution to maintain a safe, respectful, inclusive, and ragging-free campus environment.

Outcome of the Program:

The program created a positive impact among students and the college community. It increased awareness about the harmful effects and consequences of ragging and motivated students to maintain discipline, respect, and responsible behavior. The rally strengthened the message of creating a safe, supportive, and inclusive campus and encouraged students to actively contribute towards maintaining a ragging-free college environment.

Vote of Thanks:

The program concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by the MSR Club Coordinator. Sincere gratitude was expressed to the Chief Guest, Mr. Ravi Naik, Circle Inspector of Police, for his valuable presence and motivating address. Thanks were also extended to the MITS Management, Principal, faculty members, and MSR student volunteers for their valuable support, cooperation, and active participation. The collective efforts of everyone involved contributed significantly to the successful conduct of the Anti-Ragging Rally and strengthened the message of maintaining a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus environment.