Report on “International Day of Girl Child” Organized by Internal Complaint Committee of MITS on 11th October 2019

The event was started at 4:00PM in the presence of around 65 girls which was organised by the Chairperson of the Internal Complaint Committee Dr Geetha Devi garu. The Guest of Honour was Dr Hampamma garu, vice-principal of MITS School of Business and the Chief Guest was Dr Sridevi garu, HOD of the CSE and IT department. The event started with the speech of Dr Hampamma garu enlightening the students on the issues faced by girl and how she must be bold enough in the society to face these issues. She also stated a story which truly inspired many of the girls. It was continued by Dr Sridevi garu who inspired students by sharing her real life experiences. She also shared about how she has faced all the difficulties to get that position. It was continued by Dr Geetha Devi garu who explained about the issues and also said about the Internal Complaint Committee which helps girl students in many ways. She also explained how education helps girls to attain respect in the society and also explained girls that under any circumstance don't quit your education. One of the girls who participated in the event shared about her sufferings as a girl to get education. Though there are many schemes to educate a girl it was all about how many of them are following. The event was followed by games where students has actively participated. The event was concluded with vote of thanks by Vishnu Priya of MBA 2nd Year.

We express our gratitude to the Management, Principal, Vice Principals, Deans, Associate Deans, Head of all Departments, Teaching and Non-Teaching fraternity for their constant support and encouragement.
