

A Report

on

Parent's Meeting (28-11-2024)

Organized

NATIONAL CADET CORPS

Report Submitted by Lt. Dr . N. Naveen Kumar Associate NCC Officer
Mits

The MITS NCC unit successfully organized a parent's meeting on 28th November 2024, with the goal of fostering better communication and collaboration among parents, NCC staff, and cadets. The meeting served as a platform to brief parents about NCC activities, achievements, and future plans while addressing any concerns they may have regarding their children's involvement in NCC programs.

The meeting emphasized the importance of NCC in instilling values such as discipline, leadership, teamwork, and patriotism in the cadets, alongside their academic progress.

The meeting witnessed enthusiastic participation from:

Commanding Officer (CO): Col. N. V. Monis Sir

Administrative Officer (AO): Maj. P. Loganathan Sir

Associate NCC Officer (ANO): Lt. N. Naveen Kumar Sir

Institution Principal: Dr. C. Yuvaraj Sir

NCC staff members and instructors.

Parents of cadets from: 1st/2nd/3rd

Cadets actively enrolled in the NCC program.

The strong turnout reflected parents' keen interest in understanding their children's growth and the impact of NCC activities.

The MITS NCC has always believed in fostering excellence, and this remarkable 100% result. Is a clear reflection of the dedication and hardwork put in by every single cadet it is a proud moment for the institution.

The open discussion allowed parents to share their thoughts, ask questions, and seek clarifications.

Balancing NCC training with academics.

Support for travel and logistics during camps.

Health and safety measures during physical activities and camps.

The Commanding Officer and ANO addressed all queries, assuring parents of the institution's commitment to their children's well-being and development.

Promoting cadet participation in national-level events like RDC and Youth Exchange Programs (YEP).

Expanding community service initiatives for greater social impact. Incorporating more activities to build fitness, teamwork, and career-oriented skills.

It gives me an immense pleasure to deliver vote of thanks for the dignitaries assembled here. I extend my sincere thanks to the officers for spending their valuable time with us and inspiring us with their words.

