- Just a Minute

All the events were conducted very well.

Mode of communication : Microsoft teams

Day 1:

On Day 1 all the competitions were conducted starting with puzzle solving from 4 PM to 7 PM. Students participated very actively and exhibited their innate skills which caught the eyes of all the viewers. The huge competition among the participants made them learn how to handle critical situations. The events were organised virtually and in an innovative way than never before. Nearly 120 students participated in all the competitions and made the competitions more interesting.

Day 2:

On Day 2 that is 24th September, NSS Day celebrations meet was hosted in Microsoft Teams under the guidance of NSS Program officer Mr. C. Narasimha. The programme started with the prayer song by Akhil, an NSS Volunteer. Later NSS Program Officer readout the annual report of MITS NSS wing. The principal of MITS Dr. C. Yuvraj Sir addressed the gathering and appreciated the NSS Wing for the events. Then P. Manogna, an NSS Volunteer read out the profile of the Chief Guest Dr. S. Vasundara who is the Head of NSS wing, JNTUA Ananthapramu. The chief guest motivated the students with her words and wished that this NSS unit of MITS will reach greater heights. Principal and Chief guest revealed the names of the students who won in the competitions. Then K. Naga Bharat Kumar, an NSS volunteer spoke about the depleting human rights in the society and reminded the students about their duties in preserving these rights. Finally K. Nihal, an NSS volunteer proposed a vote of thanks for the gathering. The programme was a great success and gave the organizers a new energy to host such events again.
