

(UGC-AUTONOMOUS)

Report on Rendezvous with Dr Prathima Gupta organised by Internal Complaint Committee of MITS on 22nd August 2019.

The event started at 4:00pm in the presence of around 95 girls and lady faculties. The chief guests for the event were Dr Vijaya Lakshmi garu, Dr Geetha Devi garu. The program started on welcoming Dr Geetha Devi garu, the Chair person of Internal Complaint Committee, Dr Vijaya Lakshmi garu, the Chair person of International Cell and the Chief Guest Dr Prathima Gupta garu. The Chief Guest was welcomed by Dr Geetha Devi garu and Dr Vijaya Lakshmi garu spoke few words about Dr Prathima Gupta garu.

Dr Prathima Gupta garu addressed the gathering with her introduction. She spoke about the problems that are commonly faced by girls which are related to skin. She spoke about the problems like acne, hair fall, dandruff and rashes and the remedies for those issues. She enlightened the girls of how to avoid such problems. She also addressed the gathering of how important is the skin as it is considered as the one of the largest organ in human body. She spoke about how we should protect our skin and important health is.

She also explained about her patients who has suffered a lot about skin reashes and how they are unaware of the fungi spreading in their body. How most of her patients visited hospital; when the problem was too extreme. How they explained that they have applied the antibiotic when it is there and stopped in one or two days which made them to reach out hospital when it has spreaded the whole body. The program was concluded with the vote of thanks by Hardika B. Pratap from 2nd MBA.

