77th REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS AT MITS

Deemed to be University, Madanapalle

The 77th Republic Day was celebrated with great patriotism and enthusiasm at MITS Deemed to be University, Madanapalle, on 26th January 2026. The celebration was organized in the college premises in the presence of dignitaries, faculty members, NCC cadets, students, and staff.

The programme commenced with the unfurling of the National Flag by the Chief Guest, followed by the National Anthem. The entire gathering stood in attention, expressing respect and pride for the nation. The campus was filled with patriotic spirit as NCC cadets presented an impressive guard of honour and contingent.

The NCC cadets of MITS displayed remarkable discipline, coordination, and dedication during the parade. Their smart uniforms, synchronized movements, and confident commands reflected their rigorous training and commitment to national service. The salute was received by the Chief Guest and other dignitaries with great appreciation.

The Vice Chancellor addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of Republic Day, which marks the adoption of the Constitution of India on 26th January 1950. He emphasized the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in the Constitution and encouraged students to become responsible citizens contributing to the nation's development.

Various cultural performances and patriotic songs were presented by the students, which added colour and vibrancy to the celebration. The event concluded with the distribution of sweets and a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all who contributed to the success of the programme.

The Republic Day celebration at MITS Deemed to be University was a memorable event that reinforced the spirit of unity, patriotism, and national pride among everyone present.
