REPORT ON
WORLD DONAR DAY ON 14-06-2023

World Donor Day 2023 is a remarkable event organized by MITS NCC&NSS Cell on 14-06-2023. The purpose of this event was to raise awareness about the importance of organ donation, celebrate the selflessness of donors, and encourage more people to become organ donors

World Donor Day 2023 is a resounding success, achieving its goals of raising awareness, honoring donors, and fostering a sense of community engagement. The event not only educated attendees but also inspired many to consider organ donation as a noble and life-saving act.
