

Department of English & Foreign Languages
Report on Awareness Program

Title: Importance of Foreign Languages education in Global scenario

Resource Person: HR consultant for Japanese Language, Chennai Prof. Nirmal Ephraim

Number of students Attended and benefited: 700

Venue: Auditorium

Date: 07-11-2023

The department of English & Foreign Languages organized a conductive session on the Importance of Foreign Languages education in the global Scenario on 17/11/2023 in the college Auditorium.

Japan is one of the promising countries for job destination especially for Engineering graduates in India. Learning the language and obtaining a JLPT certificate will drive a student with additional qualification to hit a desirable job. In this connection, the Resource Person Mr. Nirmal Ephraim enriched students of II, III & IV year of B.Tech., about the importance of learning the language not only to get jobs in Japan but also to work in Japanese companies established in India. He said, Japan is a country where there is lot of opportunities for Indian technology savvies because Japanese amazing contributions, inventions and innovations changed the world. Moreover, Japanese are known for their humanity, he added. The session lasted for 2 hours with some queries from students that were answered by Prof. Ephraim gently.