

A Report on Three-Day event on
"English Language Day Celebrations 2024-25"
Organized by Department of English and Foreign Languages
from 21.04.2025 to 23.04.2025

Report Submitted by: Dr. G. Hemalatha and Mr. M. Naresh, Assistant Professors, Department of English & Foreign Languages.

Venue: Seminar Hall- KK Block

Time: 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM

No. of Participants: 160

Mode of Conduct: Offline

Report Received on 01.05.2025.

A Three-Day English Language Celebrations 2024-25 was organized by the Department of English & Foreign Languages in remembrance of William Shakespeare, the greatest dramatist of the World. April 23 is the date of English Language Day declared officially by the United Nations which commemorates Shakespeare's birth anniversary too. His contribution to literature is impeccable and ideally suited for literary purposes.

DAY-I, 21 April 2025

On the first day, the organizers conducted three competitions such as Extempore, Poem Recitation and Stories on proverbs exclusively for students. Judges of the events were Dr. S. Shanmuga Priya, Associate Professor, Dr. M. Parvathi, Dr. G. Hemalatha, & Mr. M. Naresh, Assistant Professors, Department of English & Foreign Languages, MITS. All the students actively participated from different disciplines and exhibited their talents and utilized the platform well.

DAY-II, 22 April 2025

The second day started with an invocation, preceded with dance performances and language game to the students named Team Building. The activity was highly competitive and students from different branches excitedly participated. Students those who won in the language games received attractive cash prizes as a reward. All students from different disciplines took part in public speaking competitions enthusiastically. On-spot activities were conducted such as Taboo; Picture Talk and the winners were given attractive cash prizes for each event. The judges of these events were Dr. P. Athahar Samina Khan, Head, Dept. of English & Foreign Languages, Dr. M. Parvathi, & Mr. C. Purushottam, Assistant Professors, Department of English & Foreign Languages, MITS. Student coordinators from KAIZEN extraordinarily worked as a guiding source to the students and constantly encouraged them for their active participation in the competitions.

As a part of cultural programs, English songs with karaoke and dance performances by I & II B.Tech., especially for English Songs won the fullest applause. The programme ended with vote of thanks proposed by Mr. M. Naresh, Assistant Professor.

DAY-III, 23 April 2025

The Third day event was started with an invocation along with Audio Visual Presentation on “Importance of English Language.” The dignitaries of the day were Dr. C. Yuvaraj, Principal, MITS, Dr. D. Pradeep Kumar, Chief Coordinator, PAARC Cell and Dr. P. Athahar Samina Khan, Head, Dept. of English & Foreign Languages. The programme started at 3:00 PM with an introduction of the event by Dr G. Hemalatha, Assistant Professor. The opening remarks were given by Dr. P. Athahar Samina Khan, in which she explained the importance of English Language and motivated the students to enhance their speaking skills with confidence and body language. It was followed by Dr. D. Pradeep Kumar, the keynote speaker of the programme. He shared his memories of reading the books of William Shakespeare, the joy he attained while watching or reading the dramas of English language and literature. The students who performed drama were highly appreciated by him. Dr. C. Yuvaraj, Principal, MITS, delivered his presidential address to the huge gathering. In his message, the significance of English, importance of communication skills for attending interviews and how it helps students to gain confidence were highlighted. He appreciated Dr. P. Athahar Samina Khan for conducting English Language Day every year and helping students to develop their proficiency of English Language.

As a part of Language Day Celebration, Drama presentation on the theme of Justice in the play The Merchant of Venice was performed by I B.Tech. CAI-D section students. An appreciation reward of Rs.3000 was announced by Dr. D. Pradeep Kumar, to the drama students who performed extraordinarily. After that, on stage competition named Presentation of Literary Characters was held for the students. The first three winners were given attractive cash prizes. Later, shields were given to the winners of the competitions.

The anchors were the students of KAIZEN club, trained by Dr. R. Sriganesh, Assistant Professor, Department of English & Foreign Languages, who supported for the success of the celebration. The session ended with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Mr. N. Naresh, Assistant Professor, Department of English and Foreign Languages, MITS.

The department of English and Foreign Languages extends its heartfelt gratitude to the honorable Secretary and Correspondent Dr. N. Vijaya Bhaskar Choudary, the Executive Director Mrs. Keerthi Nadella, the president, RRR Academy, Sri. N. Dwarakanath, the beloved principal Dr. C. Yuvaraj and the faculty members of the department for their precious support for having organized the event smoothly and successfully.