

A Report on “The English Language Day Celebrations”
Organised by Department of English & Foreign Languages on 17.05.2024

Report submitted by: Dr. P. Athahar Samina Khan, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English and Foreign Languages

Guest Speaker: Dr. Basabi Chakraborty, Prof. & Dean of Computer Science and Technology

Special Address: Dr. P. Ramanathan, VP- Academics

Report Received on 22.05.2024

Mode of Conduct: Offline

Venue: Auditorium

The Department of English and Foreign Languages of Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science celebrated ‘English Language Day’ in a grand way on 17th of May 2024 at Auditorium. The event started with a short Audio Visual of Language Day, followed by the introduction of the event. Mr. Naresh and Team members had invocation Song of the day.

In an opening remark, Dr. Athahar Samina Khan, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English and Foreign Languages welcomed the gathering. She depicted that the writings of 16th and 17th Centuries, of the English language had undergone many changes with Shakespeare’s creativity and she praised Shakespeare for having introduced hundreds of new words and phrases into literature which are still used by us today. She happily added that Celebrating English Language Day in his memory is also an essential one for students to know about his greatness of time.

In his special address, Dr. P. Ramanathan, Vice Principal of MITS, stated that all got the opportunity to celebrate the birthday of the world’s greatest dramatist, William Shakespeare. As the most popular playwright of the English language, Shakespeare has also had a huge impact on modern English. The English language itself a remarkable mark of Shakespeare and with great blessings to all over world.

The guest of the day was Dr. Basabi Chakraborty, Prof. & Dean of Computer Science and Technology, MITS. She said that English Language Day had celebrated in commemoration of Shakespeare’s birthday. His works are the greatest treasures of all ages. All his writings involve beauty of emotion, coherence of words, style of writing, process of poetry, discovery of human emotions and meaningful concepts are exemplary not only for today’s generation but also for future generations. As long as the English language exists, Shakespeare will always remain as an immortal. Even if he is not physically present, he will continue to appear in the world through his writings with inexhaustible literary values. I B.Tech Students entertained the audience with a dramatization of Stanley Houghton’s “The Dear Departed: A Comedy in One Act Play”.

The Dear Departed: A Comedy in One Act Play:

Dr. P. Athahar Samina Khan, Associate Professor & Head, Department of English and Foreign Languages appreciated the students and faculty for involving themselves in the programme with rewards and certificates. Prizes were and trophy were awarded to the winners of Story writing, Extempore, Pencil Sketching competitions which conducted on 6th, 7th & 8th of May 2024 exclusively for the students. The students from various disciplines participated and excelled and exhibited their talents in extracurricular activities. The session ended with a Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. G. Hemalatha, Assistant Professor, Department of English and Foreign Languages, MITS.

Story Writing:

Extempore:

Pencil Sketch:

Prizes: Awarding Shield, Certificates:

Newspaper Clips:

