Introduction

The Farewell Day for the MCA R24 Batch (2024–2026) was organized with great enthusiasm and warmth to bid a memorable farewell to the outgoing students. The event served as an opportunity for students, faculty members, and juniors to celebrate the achievements, friendships, and experiences shared during the academic journey.

Objectives

- To honor the graduating MCA students.
- To celebrate their academic achievements and contributions.
- To provide an opportunity for interaction and sharing of memories.
- To wish the outgoing student's success in their future endeavors.

Program Highlights

The farewell program commenced with a welcome address by the event Coordinator Dr. J. Jude Moses Anto Devakanth, followed by motivational speeches by the faculties highlighting the accomplishments and dedication of the graduating students. Various cultural activities, including dance performances, songs, games, and entertainment programs, were organized by the 1st year students.

Several outgoing students shared their experiences, memorable moments, and gratitude towards the institution, faculty, and classmates. Faculty members also extended their best wishes and offered valuable guidance for the students' future careers. A vibrant classical dance performance was presented by the junior students, showcasing the richness of Indian culture and tradition. The performers captivated the audience with their graceful movements, expressive gestures, and synchronized choreography. The performance was highly appreciated by the faculty members and students, adding elegance and cultural significance to the farewell celebration.

The event also featured an energetic western dance performance by the juniors, which brought excitement and enthusiasm to the gathering. The students displayed remarkable coordination, creativity, and stage presence through their lively dance routines. The performance entertained the audience and created a joyful atmosphere, making the farewell celebration even more memorable for the outgoing MCA R24 batch students.

A series of fun-filled games and interactive activities were organized during the farewell program to encourage participation and strengthen the bond between juniors and seniors. Students enthusiastically took part in the activities, creating moments of laughter and enjoyment. The engaging sessions provided an opportunity for everyone to relax, interact, and cherish the memories they had built together throughout their academic journey.

One of the most touching moments of the farewell celebration was the experience-sharing session by the outgoing MCA students. The seniors reflected on their academic journey, highlighting the knowledge they gained, the challenges they overcame, and the memorable moments they shared with their classmates and faculty members. They expressed their gratitude to the department for providing a supportive learning environment and valuable opportunities for personal and professional growth.

The seniors also offered words of encouragement and guidance to their juniors, motivating them to make the most of their time at the institution. They shared insights about academics, project work, placements, and career development, inspiring the juniors to pursue their goals with confidence and determination. The session was both emotional and motivating, leaving a lasting impression on everyone present.

Conclusion

The Farewell Day celebration for the MCA R24 Batch (2024–2026) was a memorable and successful event. It provided an opportunity to reflect on the journey of the students, strengthen bonds among peers and faculty, and create lasting memories. The event concluded with a vote of thanks and best wishes for the outgoing students as they embark on new professional and personal journeys.

The Department of MCA extends its heartfelt congratulations and wishes the R24 Batch a bright and successful future.
