The National Youth Day celebration at Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science took place on January 12, 2024 from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM, in the college Seminar hall-B. This event aimed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda and inspire the youth with his teachings. The chief guest for the occasion was Mr. D.G. Rama Murthy, a renowned motivational speaker with a deep understanding of youth development.

The celebration began with a Lightening lamp and inaugural speech by IIC Coordinator Dr S. Gopal Krishnan, Head of the department Dr S. Kusuma and vice Principal Dr. P. Ramanathan.

Mr D. G. Ramamurthy, a distinguished personality in the field of motivation and leadership, graced the event as the Chief Guest. With a background in youth empowerment, Mr. Ramamurthy brought a wealth of experience to the celebration. In his inspiring speech, Mr. Ramamurthy delved into the timeless teachings of Swami Vivekananda. He emphasized the relevance of Vivekananda's philosophy in today's fast-paced world and highlighted the need for youth to align themselves with these principles. Mr. Ramamurthy eloquently explained how Swami Vivekananda's principles of self-discipline, fearlessness, and service to humanity can serve as a guiding light for the youth in their personal and professional lives. Addressing the current challenges faced by the youth, Mr. Ramamurthy spoke passionately about the importance of resilience, adaptability, and a positive mindset. He engaged the audience by sharing anecdotes and real-life examples that resonated with the experiences of today's youth. Mr. Ramamurthy painted a vivid picture of the future, urging the youth to embrace their potential and contribute meaningfully to society. He emphasized the role of education, leadership, and community engagement in shaping a brighter tomorrow.

Head of the Data Science department Dr S. Kusuma felicitated the chief guest Mr. D. G Ramamurthy with a memento.
