

A Report on Smart India Hackathon
Organized by
Department of Computer Science Engineering - Data Science
26.09.2023

Submitted by: Dr. S. Gopalakrishnan, Assistant Professor, Department of Computer science and Engineering (Data Science)
Report Received on 07.09.2023
Dignitaries present:

Mr. M. Purushothama Reddy, Senior Consultant at Oracle, evaluated and provided guidance to teams working on Computer Science and Engineering (CSE) projects.

Mr. D. Anand Swaroop, Senior Manager at Adams bridge, evaluated and guided teams working on Mechanical and Civil Engineering projects.

Mr. V. Tamil Kumaran, Manager at Tata Communications, evaluated projects in the fields of Electronics and Communication Engineering (ECE) and Electrical and Electronics Engineering (EEE).

Program details:

Smart India Hackathon-2023 will initiative to provide students a stage on which to solve some of the most important issues we see on a daily basis, fostering a culture of product innovation and a problem-solving mindset

On 26th September 2023, an “Internal Hackathon” was organized by Institution’s Innovation Cell (IIC) , Department of Computer Science and Engineering and Data Science , Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science, Andhra Pradesh, India under the aegis of Smart India Hackathon-2023. A total of 62 teams have been participated in Internal SIH 2023 from the entire college.

Students Participation Details

S.No	Department	Total No of Teams	Total No of Boys	Total No of Girls	Total No of Students
1	CSE	11	31	35	66
2	CST	8	18	22	40
3	CSE-AI	10	34	26	60
4	CSE-DS	10	30	30	60
5	CSE-CS	7	26	11	37
6	CSE-IOT	2	6	6	12
7	ECE	6	20	08	28
8	EEE	4	9	13	22
9	MECH	3	15	3	18
10	CIVIL	2	7	5	12
Total		63	196	159	355

