Report Received on 30.06.2026.

The School of Management, Madanapalle Institute of Technology and Science - Deemed to be University, in association with MITS Alumni Welfare Association successfully organized Alumni Meet 2K26 on 25 June 2026 from 10.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. in the Scale Up Room. The event was conceived as an institutional initiative to strengthen alumni engagement, foster professional networking, and reinforce the University's commitment to building enduring relationships with its graduates.

The programme brought together 30 alumni representing different MBA graduating batches, creating a vibrant platform for reconnecting with the institution, exchanging professional experiences, and exploring opportunities for sustained collaboration in academics, industry engagement, mentoring, and student development. The event also served as an avenue for obtaining constructive alumni feedback to support continuous quality enhancement in management education.

Objectives of the event:

The Alumni Meet was organized with the following objectives:

- To strengthen institutional engagement with alumni and foster a sustainable alumni network.
- To facilitate interaction among alumni, faculty, and students for knowledge exchange and professional mentoring.
- To encourage alumni participation in internships, placements, curriculum enrichment, industry interaction, and academic development.

The programme commenced with an enthusiastic welcome by Mr. Lokesh and Ms. Harshita B., students of I MBA, who served as the Masters of Ceremony. Their professional anchoring established a cordial atmosphere and ensured the seamless conduct of the programme.

Following the ceremonial welcome and introduction of the dignitaries, Dr. G. Naga Swetha, Alumni Relations Officer, formally inaugurated the proceedings. In her address, she underscored the strategic importance of alumni engagement in advancing institutional excellence. She observed that alumni are lifelong stakeholders whose professional accomplishments enrich the University's academic ecosystem and reputation. She emphasized that sustained alumni participation through mentoring, industry interaction, internships, placement support, guest lectures, and collaborative initiatives is essential for preparing students to meet contemporary professional expectations.

Delivering the Dean's address, Dr. Bhanu Sree Reddy, Dean, School of Management, welcomed the alumni back to their alma mater and appreciated their continued association with the institution. She highlighted that the School of Management considers its alumni an invaluable source of professional expertise and institutional support. She noted that alumni perspectives play a significant role in curriculum refinement, experiential learning, and industry-oriented academic practices. She further encouraged alumni to actively contribute through guest lectures, live projects, entrepreneurship mentoring, corporate networking, and research collaborations.

Addressing the gathering, Dr. P. Ramanathan, Principal, congratulated the alumni on their remarkable professional achievements and observed that their success reflects the academic quality, values, and educational philosophy of the University. He encouraged the alumni to remain closely connected with the institution and contribute to nurturing future management professionals. Stressing the importance of lifelong learning, he advised students to continuously enhance their professional competencies, leadership capabilities, communication skills, and ethical values to remain relevant in an increasingly dynamic global business environment.

The keynote address was delivered by Dr. D. Pradeep Kumar, In-charge Registrar, who reaffirmed the University's commitment to developing a vibrant and professionally engaged alumni community. He remarked that alumni serve as ambassadors of the institution and constitute an indispensable link between academia and industry. He emphasized that alumni participation in curriculum development, internships, placements, entrepreneurship promotion, collaborative research, and institutional outreach significantly enhances the quality and relevance of higher education. He appreciated the alumni for maintaining a strong association with the University and encouraged them to continue contributing to its academic and institutional advancement.

Alumni Interaction session

The Alumni Interaction Session was one of the most engaging segments of the programme, providing an excellent platform for meaningful interaction between alumni, faculty members, and students. The alumni emphasized the importance of continuous learning, professional certifications, effective communication, leadership, adaptability, and ethical values in achieving long-term career success. They encouraged students to complement their academic knowledge with practical exposure, industry-oriented skills, and a proactive approach towards personal and professional development. The interaction also provided students with an opportunity to seek guidance on career planning, interview preparation, higher education, and corporate work culture.

The session featured the participation of distinguished alumni, including Mr. G. Anil Dutt, MBA (2005–2007 Batch), Curriculum Coordinator, Rishi Valley School, Madanapalle; Mr. Durga Chappala, MBA (2017–2019 Batch), Quality Control Professional, Accenture, Bengaluru; Mr. Ajay Nakkala, MBA (2017–2019 Batch), R2R Senior Associate, Accenture; and Ms. Sravanthi S., MBA (2019–2021 Batch), HR Associate, Tele India Networks, Bengaluru. Drawing upon their professional experiences across diverse sectors, the alumni shared valuable insights into evolving industry trends, workplace expectations, career progression, and the competencies required to excel in today's dynamic business environment.

During the discussion, the alumni appreciated the academic environment and faculty support they received during their studies at the School of Management. They expressed their willingness to strengthen their association with the institution by contributing to mentoring programmes, guest lectures, internships, placement initiatives, and industry collaborations, reaffirming their commitment to supporting the professional growth of future management graduates. The Alumni also expressed interest in providing skill-based training programs as and when needed.

Outcome of the programmes

The Alumni Meet–2026 successfully achieved its objective of strengthening the relationship between the School of Management and its alumni while fostering meaningful engagement among alumni, faculty members, and students. The programme provided a valuable platform for professional networking, knowledge sharing, and constructive discussions on enhancing industry–academia collaboration. Alumni offered insightful feedback on curriculum relevance and employability skills and reaffirmed their commitment to supporting the institution through mentoring, guest lectures, internships, placement assistance, and other academic initiatives.

The event concluded with a renewed commitment to sustaining a vibrant alumni network that contributes to the academic excellence and institutional growth of the University. The enthusiastic participation of alumni from diverse professional backgrounds not only rekindled their association with their alma mater but also laid a strong foundation for future collaborations that will enrich the learning ecosystem and create greater opportunities for the professional development of management students. The School of Management places on record its sincere appreciation to all the dignitaries, alumni, faculty members, student volunteers, and the organizing committee for their invaluable contributions in making Alumni Meet–2K26 a memorable and successful institutional event. The event was coordinated by Dr. K. Venkateswarlu, Assistant Professor, School of Management.
