"Financial Support Options for Indian Students to Study Abroad"

On 04/02/2026 @ 3pm Venue - Seminar Hall-B

For I B.Tech., Students
Organized by Student Welfare Cell

The sessions were organized separately for each branch to ensure focused interaction and relevance to discipline-specific opportunities.

Objectives of the Program:

- To create awareness about scholarships offered by the Government of India and foreign universities
- To guide students on preparation strategies aligned with their chosen specialization
- To explain how the selection of country and university impacts academic and funding opportunities
- To provide information on education loans, loan subsidies, and scholarship-loan combinations

The program enabled students to gain clarity on financial support mechanisms and helped them make informed decisions regarding their study abroad plans.

A total of 42 students from different branches actively participated in the program.
