During the interview, Major General Hada shared insights on leadership, discipline, and the relevance of educational institutions in shaping the future leaders of the nation. He addressed various questions posed by the interviewer Dr. D. Pradeep Kumar, Professor, Department of Management Studies, MITS, shedding light on his experiences and the lessons he believes are crucial for young minds entering different fields.

Key Takeaways:

Leadership and Discipline: Major General Hada emphasized the significance of disciplined behavior and strong leadership skills in our community. He encouraged students to cultivate these attributes to excel in their chosen paths.

National Service: The Major General spoke passionately about the importance of national service and encouraged students to contribute to the betterment of society, irrespective of their career choices.

Role of Educational Institutions: Major General M K Hada highlighted the role of educational institutions in nurturing holistic individuals who can contribute meaningfully to society. He urged students to make the most of their time in college to develop a well-rounded personality.

Outcome:

Major General M K Hada's visit to our MITS Radio 90.8 CRS on Freshers' Day was a momentous occasion, providing students with valuable insights and inspiration. The interview served as an opportunity for the institute community to connect with a distinguished personality and gain perspectives that extend beyond the confines of academic knowledge. The event was a testament to our commitment to providing a holistic educational experience for our students.

Acknowledgments:

We extend our gratitude to Major General M K Hada for graciously sharing his time and wisdom with us. Special thanks to the organizers, interviewers, and everyone involved in making this event a success. This visit marked a significant chapter in the journey of our MITS Radio 90.8 CRS, showcasing its potential as a platform for meaningful interactions and exchange of ideas.
