Discussion, Key Resolutions, and Observations

The IAAB meeting was initiated under the coordination of Dr. K. S. Krishna, who formally commenced the proceedings. He then invited Dr. Bhanu Sree Reddy, Head of the Department, to present the department's highlights and share the agenda. Dr. Bhanu Sree Reddy provided a detailed overview of the R25 1st Year MBA curriculum structure and syllabus and welcomed IAAB members to offer their valuable suggestions for further improvement.

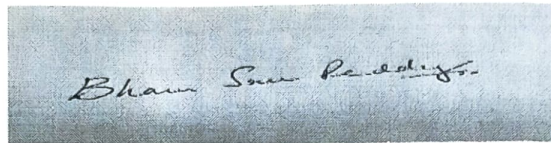

Key Resolutions and Approvals

1. The Vision, Mission, Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs), and Programme Outcomes (POs) were reviewed and accepted to continue further.
2. The MBA First Year Course Structure was discussed, unanimously accepted, and appreciated by all members.
3. The proposed modifications under Regulation 2025 were reviewed and approved.
(Syllabus copy attached)
4. The detailed syllabi of MBA First Year were thoroughly discussed and approved.

Suggestions and Observations by External IAAB Members

1. The IAAB members commended the R25 course structure and syllabus and advised increasing student engagement in identifying community needs through systematically designed surveys for social service projects.

2. The importance of communication skills was strongly emphasized, with a suggestion to strengthen them further to make students industry-ready.
3. IAAB members emphasized the importance of strengthening internships and aligning the syllabus with industry needs to ensure students acquire meaningful hands-on experience before joining the workforce.
