- Promote interest in literature, analytical thinking, and thoughtful expression.
- Improve students' communication, writing, and reasoning abilities.
- Encourage students to observe, reflect, and present their thoughts in a clear, creative, and meaningful manner.

Event Overview:

The Literary Club of Madanapalle Institute of Technology & Science (MITS), under the Student Activity Centre (SAC), successfully organized "The Critical Pen" on 9th September 2026, from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM at LB 012.

The event was organized with the aim of enhancing the critical thinking, creative writing, and expressive abilities of the students. The Critical Pen provided participants with an opportunity to reflect on different ideas and express their perspectives effectively through written words.

The event was conducted under the guidance of Dr. G. Reddy Hemantha, SAC Coordinator, along with Dr. V. Naveen and Mr. B.S.H. Shayeez Ahamed, SAC Co-Coordinators, and Mr. T. Rama Mohan, Faculty Coordinator. The student coordinators Y. Likitha and J. Naveen Kumar actively coordinated the event and ensured its smooth conduct.

During the activity, participants were encouraged to read, reflect, analyze, and express their ideas creatively. The event emphasized that writing is not merely a way of presenting information but also a powerful means of communicating one's thoughts, observations, and perspectives.

Through The Critical Pen, students were able to explore their creativity while developing the ability to organize and communicate their ideas effectively. The activity created an engaging literary environment where participants could demonstrate their writing abilities and approach ideas from different perspectives.

Overall, the event provided students with a meaningful platform for self-expression, critical reflection, and literary creativity, while promoting greater interest in writing and literature among the participants.
