Date: 07.09.2025

As part of the institution's continuous quality improvement process and commitment towards academic excellence, the School of Management is required to obtain feedback on Curriculum Design from its key stakeholders for the Academic Year 2025–26. In this regard, the Stakeholder Coordinator of the School of Management is hereby instructed to initiate the process of collecting feedback from various stakeholders, namely Students, Parents, Employers, Alumni, and Faculty Members. The feedback collected from these stakeholders serves as a valuable source of information for evaluating the effectiveness, relevance, and adequacy of the existing curriculum. The opinions and suggestions received through this exercise will help identify the strengths of the curriculum and areas that require improvement. The feedback mechanism also enables the School of Management to align its academic programs with stakeholder expectations, industry requirements, emerging trends, and societal needs. The Stakeholder Coordinator is requested to circulate the prescribed feedback forms to the respective stakeholder groups and ensure maximum participation in the feedback process. The collection of responses shall be carried out in a systematic, transparent, and confidential manner to maintain the authenticity and reliability of the data obtained.

Further, the feedback received should be compiled, analyzed, and interpreted appropriately. A consolidated report highlighting the key findings, observations, and recommendations shall be prepared and submitted to the Dean's Office for necessary review and further action. The analysis of stakeholder feedback will contribute significantly towards curriculum enrichment, enhancement of teaching-learning practices, strengthening of Outcome-Based Education, and improvement of the overall quality of management education offered by the institution. The Stakeholder Coordinator is requested to complete the feedback collection, analysis, and reporting process within the prescribed timeline and maintain all supporting documents and records for institutional quality assurance, accreditation, and audit purposes. Therefore, you are directed to take necessary action and ensure the successful completion of the stakeholder feedback process pertaining to Curriculum Design for the Academic Year 2025–26.
